Thanet College staff using their e-portfolios. February 2009

Hello, my name's Mark ... and I'm the course leader for NVQ Level 2 Restaurant and Kitchen and I'm doing Cert Ed... and I just reflected on my Blackboard doing teaching practice.

Hello my name is Paul ... I'm course leader for pre-voc students 14-16 students and I last reflected on my PebblePad after some training I'd just done.

Hi, my name is Jeremy. I'm the Administrator for Arts and Sciences and I use my PebblePad for an online diary.

Hi, I'm Alan..., Workforce Development Coordinator for the College and the last thing I put on my portfolio was a report to do with a Russian visit for the international section.

Hi, my name's Alan... and I'm a course leader in Motor Vehicle and today I'm taking some motor vehicle students in the workshop. The last thing I loaded into my PebblePad portfolio was some reflective notes on a national conference I attended.

Hello, I'm Helen and I work in PAWS (Personal and Work Skills) with students with learning difficulties and the last time I reflected on my portfolio was last week to say hello to Geoff.

Hi, I'm Chris... and I work in the Registry section, I'm the Reporting Officer and the last thing I used my PebblePad for was to have a look because I'm new to it, record the training for cross-college training day and for... training we went on and have a look.

Hi, I'm Sue... I teach Catering at Thanet College and the last item I put into my portfolio was a reflective log about my staff training on Friday the 13th.

Hi, my name is Steve... and I work in the Construction, Engineering & Motor Vehicle Department. The last time I used PebblePad was when my observation details were passed to me from another colleague.

Hello, my name's Mark ..., I'm course leader for BTEC Business Programmes and the Access to HE programmes. The last thing I put in my PebblePad was an article reflecting on a meeting I attended at the Open College Network about access and grading of qualifications.

My name's Nicola... and I work for the Personal and Work Skills section at Thanet College. The last time I used my e-portfolio was to evaluate a staff training day and I shared my e-portfolio with... (the person stood next to her) "My name's Sue..."

Hi, my name's Charlie... I'm the Additional Needs Assessor at Thanet College. The last thing I did on my portfolio was to put some information on ADHD on portfolios to share with other members of staff.

My name's Sue... and I teach in the PAWS Department. I teach Cookery and Home Skills to students with special needs. The last time I used PebblePad was with Nic when we were reflecting on training we'd given.

My name's Sara... I'm course leader on ICT and Business Administration courses and part-time courses with regards to IT and the last thing I put on my portfolio was a course team meeting.

Hi, my name is Jenny... I teach IT at levels one and two. The last thing I put on PebblePad was my reflections on training for fire evacuation chairs.

Hi, my name's Jess..., I'm the AimHigher Project Officer here in Student Services. The last thing I put in my PebblePad was a reflection about maybe organising some kind of mini-summer school to prepare students with the skills they need for going to university.

Hi, my name is Chris... and I work at Thanet College and I'm a group tutor for further learning students. My portfolio last entry was managing challenging behaviour and a snapshot of a training day we did which was actually amazing called 'Missing the Gorilla'.

Hi, I'm Chris... and I work in the Skills Centre and the last thing I did on my portfolio is I added a resource which I'm quite proud of and I hope to use if for my performance standard review.

Hi, my name's Nicky... and I'm PA to the Deputy Principal. The last thing I put in my portfolio was a reflection on the future IQER Review.

Hello, I'm Alison..., I'm the Lifelong Learning Coordinator at Thanet College. The last thing I put in my portfolio was the outputs of a meeting I had with my AimHigher colleague Jess on progression agreements, we're creating a plan, so that's what I did yesterday.

Hi, my name's Megan..., I work in Essential Skills teaching literacy, numeracy and ICT. Last time I used my PebblePad portfolio was to discuss behaviour management with our Essential Skills team.

Hi, I'm Jane... and I'm Head of Essential Skills. The last time I used my 'Pebble' was when I received an appraisal from a member of my staff when she sent it to me.

Hi, I'm Nigel... I use PebblePad for uploading photographs mainly because I'm a Media and Photography Tutor and I find it very useful to be able to store my photographs and to circulate them to colleagues.
